Adam and Eve New Upscale Specialty Lingerie Boutique

Nightwire is extremely excited to tell you about Pittsburgh's newest upscale specialty lingerie boutique for women, men and couples. Minutes from downtown and Ross Park Mall on McKnight Road in the North Hills is where you will find this very special place.... your new hometown owned and operated....Adam & Eve Boutique!

From the very moment you walk through the door, you will find the atmosphere warm and welcoming, inviting you to browse and shop. The interior is rich and bright; their displays showcase their merchandise extremely well, making it inviting and pleasing to shop. Here you will find their sales staff to be extremely personable and knowledgeable. They can help you select something for that special occasion or for a very romantic evening or something to spice up your love life or reignite the spark in your marriage. Adam & Eve Boutique has everything you need to get started in a refined and extremely comfortable environment. If you looking for something pretty, lacy or a little racy, Adam & Eve has it all!

Adam & Eve Boutique is very well stocked with gorgeous designer and top quality lingerie for both men and woman at affordable pricing. Perhaps you're looking for that perfect bridal shower gift or honeymoon lingerie. This boutique definitely has something for everyone. They feature more sexy and sensual lingerie, including a very large selection of plus sizes and great selections for men, than any other store in Pittsburgh. Well, actually there isn't any store in Pittsburgh that can even come close to Adam & Eve Boutique!

We are extremely impressed with their line of hosiery, panties, garter belts, matching bra and panty sets and shoes (you know, those "must have" shoes every woman needs.) Did we mention they have toys? Upscale top of the line toys such as Lelo and the We-Vibe (as featured on Dr Oz). And, just in, the newest award-winning line of intimate products designed by "The Real Housewife of Atlanta" star and singer/songwriter, Kandi Burruss: Bedroom Kandi. You simply have to check out these new products! Most importantly, if you have any questions, all you have to do is ask one of their sales consultants. Adam & Eve sales consultants will make you feel extremely comfortable. They are there to help and guide you with your selections to ensure that you will be happy or if you would rather browse and shop alone, trust us, they excel at reading their customers.

They also carry a large selection of massage oils, body lotions, lubricants and products for your every romantic need. In addition, they have a large selection of novelties, DVDs and the ultimate selection of romance material.

We know that once you stop in, you will agree and fall in love with this boutique.

Adam & Eve Boutique Grand Opening will take place on Thursday, May 3rd through Saturday, May 5th. Check out their website, www.adamevepittsburgh.com, for daily events and grand opening specials available only during this event. On the first night, Thursday, at 7pm, Dr. Rachael Rosen, a licensed sex therapist, will be hosting a free seminar. On Friday, from 4pm-8pm, Fitness with a Twist will be demonstrating chair and pole dancing plus Star 100.7 will be broadcasting "live" from 5pm - 7pm. A strolling fashion show will be held on Saturday from 4pm-8pm and there will be product demonstrations daily throughout their Grand Opening Event!

1. Don't drink fruit juices or juice-based products while "dieting." Get your nutrition from calories you chew rather than swallow. The simple sugar (fructose) combined with artificial sweeteners can cause havoc to your bikini body.
2. Shoot for 25 to 35 gm of fiber per day. Fiber gives a feeling of satiety and will keep you full longer than simple types of carbohydrates.
3. If you get hungry, eat a few ounces of protein to tide you over until your next meal. Protein is a major building block of muscle and has a low glycemic level. By avoiding the spikes in blood glucose these calories are normally not stored as body fat.
4. Eat at least two servings of fish per week to get healthy fats. Remember, what good is it if your body rocks and your skin, nails and hair are out of sorts? The healthy fats in fish enable your body to repair and restore nutrients that enable your hair, skin and nails to look their best.
5. Spice up your food with red pepper, which boosts metabolism.
6. Drizzle sugar-free syrup over cooked carrots for a sweet treat.
7. Drink green tea liberally – it helps burn fat. The health effects of green tea on the body have been well documented. Green tea's thermic effect also aids in fighting the battle of the bulge.
8. Try not to let yourself get bored, stressed out or depressed, if possible. Try yoga, meditation and herbs such as kava and ginseng for stress. Regular exercise, journaling and supplements such as fish, St. Johns Wort and 5-HTP can help alleviate depression.
9. Outwait your food cravings. They generally last no longer than 10 minutes
10. Distract yourself with a nonfood related activity, such as exercising, reading, pursuing a favorite hobby, listening to music, writing letters, surfing the Internet or soaking in a hot bath.

Van Halen. Van Halen. Van Halen. The name says it all. Rock and Roll 'gods' to some, but Rock and Roll legends for sure. I could go through the Wikipedia history of this band and write all afternoon, but I won't bore you. The questions I asked the most and were forefront on my mind before the show were: "Do they still have it?" And of course: "How was David Lee Roth live after all of these years?"

I need to say that I was impressed. The band played remarkably well. They belted out songs you have heard so many times you can sing them in your sleep. They also did it with all the precision you would expect from 40-year veterans. Yes I said it.... 40 years. These guys started in 1972. Wow.

The stage show was no-frills except for the massive stage-wide LCD screen that had a multitude of shots of the band from various angles. The sound was great at Consol, and the lights were typical Van Halen. Nothing super special about it except the guys that were on the stage.

And yes, Roth still has it. He may not be jumping off stacks of Marshall amplifiers, but he still has his old charm and quite a bit of his old moves. He even threw a few kicks in the air and did the David Lee Roth shuffle and spin a few times.

The Veterans of Rock and Roll still show why they have made it this long.

They walked on stage. Kicked ass. And went home.....
What more could you want?

What Do Men Not Know About A Woman?

Most men believe that understanding women is almost impossible. What men really need to understand is that the male species is totally different from the female species and they should try to embrace the differences and accept women for what they really are. Then they can use this knowledge to their advantage. It really is not that complicated-once you know. Women are much better communicators than men. They multitask and focus on how to create solutions to the tasks at hand. They utilize nonverbal cues such as tone, emotion and empathy. Men, on the other hand, tend to be more task-oriented, less talkative, and more isolated. They can only focus on one thing at a time.

How Do Women Differ?

Most men have a hard time understanding the many emotions that are not spoken, while women tend to interpret emotions and body language intuitively. When a man is in tune with his emotions he is able to communicate with a woman at a different level, a level that most men do not get to. It is proven that men process better in the left hemisphere of the brain while women tend to process equally well between the two hemispheres. This difference clearly shows why men are stronger with left-brain activities and approach problem-solving from a task-oriented perspective, while women typically solve problems more creatively and are more aware of their feelings while communicating.

What Does This Mean?

In real life, when a man has a problem, he always says, "I need to get this done first, then this next thing, then this, and then it all fits into place and the tasks are accomplished." They feel very efficient. Does that sound familiar? It should if you're a typical man. With women, however, things are totally different and proves why men are better in some jobs such as programming and women in others such as teaching. This is another prime example that will get you closer to accepting the differences between the male and female species.

What Is An Emotional Connection?

An emotional connection must be present for a long-term relationship to be successful. This is where thoughts and feelings for each other go way beyond the surface. They are real. Your significant other should really care how your day went, if you made that sale, had a fight with your boss or won an award. They should be secure with themselves and not jealous of your accomplishments. Jealousy leads to resentment; resentment builds up; then there are fights and feelings of insecurity. The magic of love is lost.

Why Do Couples Need Their Space?

Everyone needs their space. It is not healthy to be joined at the hip 24/7. If you have a life today, you are busy and your private time should be respected. If your significant other wants to play golf with the guys, so be it; trust him. If you want to go to the spa, just do it! That is your time to relax, and you will be a better partner feeling relaxed, energized and ready to move on. Then the time that a couple spends together becomes more important and is not taken for granted. It is quality as opposed to quantity. It is special.

What Makes A Relationship Work?

Trust, respect and communication are the three most important factors that contribute to a successful relationship. When trust is violated, there is nothing left to build on. Trust is important in all aspects of a person's life; both personal and in business. You should trust your significant other until you have reason not to. Do not look for problems. If something is wrong-don't worry-you will know. The second most important thing is to respect the feelings of your partner, really listen and hear them when they share their thoughts instead of making them try to see your point of view. Good communication is critical to any relationship. It helps a couple avoid unnecessary disagreements.

Women want love and men want sex. I recommend that friends first is the best way to proceed in a relationship. Then, the intimacy is always better; real thought, feelings, emotions not just the act of sex. Gentlemen should never text prior to a first date. A relationship is a very personal thing!

Tempations and The Four Tops

R&B superstar groups The Temptations and The Four Tops will appear on stage together at the Benedum Center, on Sunday, May 13, 2012, at 7:00 p.m. This concert is part of the Cohen and Grigsby Trust Presents series and is a presentation of The Pittsburgh Cultural Trust. Both of these ever-popular groups have been entertaining generations of fans for more than half a century. These multi-platinum artists will deliver an unforgettable night of entertainment- performing their greatest hits and more in a show that will feature their vocal harmonies, artistic style, and classic dance moves. “It’s very hard to ignore the energy and delight they delivered to the crowd (Joel Francis, The Daily Record).”

The Temptations began their career in the early 60s as members of the now-legendary Motown label, and have always featured at least five male vocalists/dancers. With the 1964 Top 20 hit “The Way You Do the Things You Do,” the group became a sensation. Follow-up hits were equally as important to the group’s career such as “My Girl,” the group’s first number-one hit, and “Ain’t Too Proud to Beg.” Later hits include “I’m Gonna Make you Love Me,” a duet with Diana Ross & The Supremes, “I Can’t Get Next to You,” a number-one pop hit, and “Papa was a Rollin’ Stone,” won the group one of their three Grammy Awards.

Over the course of five decades, The Temptations have charted four Billboard number-one singles, as well as 14 R&B number-one singles. In 2008, Rolling Stone magazine named the group “one of the top 50 bands of all time.” Otis Williams, the last original member still performing with the group, is now joined by Bruce Williamson, Joe Herndon, Terry Weeks, and Ron Tyson as the group continues the tradition of great Motown performances. For more information about The Temptations, visit: www.thetemptations.com.

Recording their first single for Chess Records in 1956, The Four Tops (Levi Stubbs, Abdul “Duke” Fakir, Renaldo “Obie” Benson, and Lawrence Payton) joined the roster of Motown in 1963, and two years later the group scored their first Billboard number-one hit with “I Can’t Help Myself (Sugar Pie, Honey Bunch).” Following this first success was a stream of hit singles, including the group’s signature song “Reach Out and I’ll Be There” in 1966, which became their second Billboard number-one hit.

Since the mid-80s, The Four Tops have focused primarily on touring. Unlike similar groups, the same four singers consistently performed as The Four Tops, until Lawrence Payton passed away in 1997. In 2004, Rolling Stone Magazine ranked them #79 on their list of the 100 Greatest Artists of All Time, and they received the Lifetime Achievement Award as part of the 51st Annual Grammy® Awards. Today, Abul “Duke” Fakir, the surviving member of the original quartet, performs and records the music of The Four Tops alongside Payton’s son Roquel, Ronnie McNeir and Spike Valone. For more information about The Four Tops, visit www.thefortopsoriginal.com.

Blue Man Group Performs at Benedum Center in Pittsburgh from May 15-20, 2012

April 12, 2012: Pittsburgh, PA – NETworks Presentations, LLC and Blue Man Productions are pleased to announce a new theatrical touring production will stop in Pittsburgh from May 15 to 20, 2012, at the Benedum Center. Tickets are now on sale.

Although Blue Man Group has toured previously with its Megastar arena rock show, this marks the first theatrical production to tour North America. The theatrical tour features classic Blue Man moments as well as brand new content.

Blue Man Group on tour also features a new physical design centering around a proscenium-sized LED curtain and high-resolution screen creating an entirely new visual experience for Broadway houses across the nation.

The critically acclaimed Blue Man Group creates experiences that defy categorization. Blue Man Group is best known for multi-media performances that feature three bald and blue characters who take the audience on a journey that is funny, intelligent and visually stunning. A live band, whose haunting tribal rhythms help drive the show to its climax, accompanies the Blue Men.

“Until now, we have never mounted a touring version of our theatrical production,” says Blue Man Group co-founder Philip Stanton. “The main reason for this is we needed to find a way to transform theatres of all shapes and sizes into spaces in which the Blue Man can intimately connect with the audience, where the audience can become engaged with the spirit of the show and of the Blue Man himself. We think we have finally figured it out, and an audience member in a theatre that seats 4,500 people or so will now be able to enjoy the same intimate experience that might be had in one of our smaller theatres. Our goal with this production, as with all of our productions, is to help audience members reconnect with their own sense of discovery, with their own sense of what is possible in their lives.”

About NETWORKS Presentations

NETworks Presentations, LLC was founded in 1995 by Kenneth Gentry, Seth Wenig and Scott Jackson. NETworks has produced and managed over 70 national and international touring productions. # Dining: Terrace Cafe at The Meadows Racetrack & Casino

Strip Steak

One of the beautiful things about our city and region is that nothing seems very far away when the weather is nice. Taking a short ride out the Parkway to 79 South, Nightwire recently visited The Meadows Racetrack & Casino's Terrace Café. The extensive menu is worth some research if you're going for a drive, but the comfort food, coupled with a stop for gambling at the casino, is definitely a winning combination. The restaurant is one of many inside the casino, but it's easy to find and sits parallel to the racetrack. What a great view! The manager, Dana, greeted us and gave us a brief tour of the spacious dining room. She shared that the locals often bypass the casino and go directly to the Terrace Café. The Café is casual dining, so no need to dress up. With so many great choices on the menu, let me get started.

I think you'll notice two themes in revealing our experience to you. First, the food is very high quality for the price and second, the distance traveled to get to The Meadows will be worth it.

Our evening started off with a bowl of French Onion Soup Gratinée ($4.75). Yes, that's less than $5, and you will want to devour every spoonful and every bite of melted cheese. Without seeing the menu prior to the visit, the Nightwire gang guessed that the soup would be priced anywhere from $7.50 to $12. The Terrace Café also offers both Italian Wedding

Soup & a Daily Soup ($4.25); all soups are house-made. Appetizers & Light Bites are abundant, and we fell in love with the Kielbasa Coins ($5.99) sauced with spicy honey mustard and garlic toast. Kielbasa? With garlic bread? Soooo good! I had to put them on the other side of the table. Next were the Crispy Provolone Cheese Sticks ($6.99) served traditionally with marinara sauce but better than you've ever had: they are hand-breaded, and you can really tell the difference from the frozen, pre-fab quality. Even though the cheese sticks are filling, we did not let one bite go uneaten. The Chicken Quesadilla Supreme ($7.99) was stuffed with tender chicken breast, cheddar cheese, sour cream, guacamole, salsa and jalapenos---no skimping on ingredients here! It was literally the biggest quesadilla I had ever seen! Small salads are also offered as light bites featuring a Fresh Garden Salad & a Spinach Side Salad (both $4.50).

If you're feeling like breakfast, the Terrace Café can accommodate. There's a Country Brunch section on the menu offering classic breakfast selections such as Classic Steak and Eggs ($12.99) featuring a 12 oz. NY Strip, Quiche, and Omelets.

Signature Salads include Jumbo Shrimp & Crab Louis ($13.99) featuring Maryland Jumbo Lump Crab, Colossal Shrimp with a Champagne Vinaigrette, asparagus, lettuce, tomatoes, cucumbers, olives & hard boiled egg. This salad was as beautiful as it was delicious, so fresh and cool and with lots of good stuff. Other salad offerings include Grilled Chicken Caesar ($7.99), Sweet Jamaican Steak Salad ($9.99) and Chef Salad ($8.99). As you can see, great value and great quality.

The Terrace Café is also known for their Great Big Burgers—1/2 pound Choice Angus Beef served with your choice of homemade potato chips, mashed potatoes, french fries, zucchini fries or cole slaw, something for everyone's taste! The burger we tried was the Three Cheese 'Frisco ($7.99), which had grilled onions, provolone, swiss and cheddar cheeses on parmesan grilled country bread.....yum! The Angus beef is notable if you're a burger connoisseur like the Nightwire crew. We all loved this burger. I would take a drive for a great burger and with six choices of burgers, there are plenty of options depending on my burger mood. With all of the choices of sides, the options seem endless. Believe it or not, there are even more sides, such as tater tots, baked potatoes, sweet potato soufflé & applesauce! Don't worry, the kitchen has a lot of staff to cook up your heart's desire, and I haven't even mentioned one specialty or entrée!

The menu is seriously mind-boggling when you spend a minute perusing all of the choices. You'll find a lot of classics like Veal Parmigiano ($16.99), Chicken Marsala, Chicken Parmigiano & Chicken Romano ($15.99), and these are just some of the selections. Each entrée is served with a garden salad or soup. The famous French Onion Soup can be substituted for an additional $2.50. The Sandwich Board has some impressive offerings like the Crab Cake Sandwich ($8.99), a Hot Roast Beef ($9.50), Waldorf Chicken Salad Sandwich ($8.25) plus many more. I'm personally going back for the Monte Cristo ($8.99), which is turkey, ham & swiss served with blackberry mayo on egg battered country bread. This sandwich is so grand that it reminds me of Las Vegas. The Meadows reminds me of the grandeur of Las Vegas right here in our backyard. If the Terrace Cafe seems a little "over the top" with so many menu items and "Vegas-style," well, it is inside a casino! We loved it! Our server, Sherri, made our experience personal and fun. The service she offered was the finest, and we felt right at home. There's

Caesar Salad & French Onion Soup

Meadows Parking Facility Officially Opens

Parking Facility Officially Opened at The Meadows to Accommodate Continued Growth
Major investments to enhance parking and access at entertainment destination

Representatives from The Meadows Racetrack & Casino, along with key community leaders officially opened the new 1,400 space parking facility with a ceremonial event.

The celebratory event marked the completion of the nine month construction project and was highlighted in a non-traditional ribbon cutting style with a lucky guest driving the first vehicle into the garage through an oversized banner.

"The opening of this garage will double our parking capacity and meet the continual growth and popularity of our entertainment facility, said Bill Paulos, president and founder of The Meadows' parent company Cannery Casino Resorts. "We have made a concentrated effort over the years to continue to accommodate our guests and improve our facilities, all while reinvesting in our region's economy."

The Meadows began a $25 million expansion project last summer with the construction the new parking garage. In addition, the facility's access roads have been widened, adding another lane to enhance access and traffic flow for guests.

The Meadows is also constructing a multi-event center on-site and is expected to eventually develop the 22 acre parcel purchased in 2011 as a retail lifestyle center, including a proposed 200-room hotel.

grandeur for sure, but no pretentiousness. They even offer Soup & Salad Combos! I think you could realistically eat here every day for a year and not have the same combination of foods. Very enticing.

And then there are the Steaks & Seafood! This restaurant is amazing in the quality and the value as evidenced by the 6 oz. Petite Filet Mignon ($18.99) or 10 oz. Full Cut ($22.99) served with garlic sautéed mushroom caps, fresh herb butter, soup or garden salad and your choice of vegetables, baked potato, mashed potatoes, french fries, zucchini fries or rice pilaf. If you like Prime Rib, there's a myriad of sizes from which to pick and Jumbo Fried Shrimp can accompany it (4/$6.50). You can choose seafood fare of Fish & Chips ($14.99) beer battered deep fried Cod served with steak fries, Tilapia ($15.99), or Fried Shrimp ($16.99). Seafood entrees include garden salad or soup.

Just in case you're in a hurry to get back to the slots or want to grab a bite in between races, the Terrace Café offers a Trifecta Express 3 Course Meal Deals. From a select menu you can choose an appetizer, a main course & a dessert for $10.99.

This includes a beverage, and offers wedding or daily soup or house salad for an additional $2.00.

Writing about all of these choices is making me realize that we had a feast, and that I'm getting hungry! Getting hungry makes me think of take-out containers, and I have some. One thing I brought home for sure was the Chocolate Cake! Three people could eat this, but don't deny yourself! I'm not ashamed to say that I ate it over the course of two days. Sometimes a girl just needs a piece of chocolate cake! The Carrot Cake also was really good, and we all liked it a whole lot.

I hope I've given you a glimpse of what's in store for you when you visit The Meadows Race Track & Casino. With the addition of a new parking facility, your visit will be easy breezy. Try your luck if you want, but my bet is on a sure thing: The Terrace Café!

Not only are the prices very reasonable, but the portion sizes will keep you sharing and coming back! There's a lot more to do at the Meadows than just enjoy the casino or the racetrack. In fact, the Nightwire crew already has a dinner and bowling trip planned! Check their website for upcoming events and concerts.

Located at Casino level, hours are as follows: Sun - Thurs 11:00 am to 9:00 pm, Fri - Sat 11:00 am to 10:00 pm.

The Terrace Café does not accept reservations but does accommodate large parties in private rooms. Check out the website- www.meadowsgaming.com/dining/terrace-cafe.

And as always, tell them your friends at Nightwire sent you!

Pittsburgh Public Theater Presents Private Lives

Director Ted Pappas closes Pittsburgh Public Theater's Red Hot season with Noël Coward's comedy masterpiece about the lunacy of love.

As a fitting finale to its Red Hot season, Pittsburgh Public Theater presents Noël Coward's comedy masterpiece, Private Lives. Directed by Ted Pappas, Private Lives runs May 24 – June 24, 2012 at the O'Reilly Theater, Pittsburgh Public Theater's home in the heart of Downtown's Cultural District. For tickets call 412.316.1600 or visit ppt.org. Randi and L. Van V. Dauler, Jr. are the Production Sponsors.

Private Lives is set in 1930. It begins on adjoining terraces of a chic French resort where two English couples are honeymooning. Amanda (Victoria Mack) is with her new husband Victor (Laird Mackintosh) and Elyot (Michael Brusasco) is with his new wife Sibyl (Amanda Leigh Cobb). Very quickly we learn that Amanda and Elyot used to be married. When the two discover the situation, surprising sparks fly. Act Two is set in a Paris apartment on the Avenue Montaigne, complete with French maid (Elena Alexandratos). Here, Coward's trademark combination of acerbic wit, high style, psychological insight, and hilarious high-jinks goes full throttle. Anyone who has ever been swept away by a wildly impossible romance will love Private Lives.

The design team is James Noone (Scenic), Andrew B. Marlay (Costumes), Phil Monat (Lighting), and Zach Moore (Sound). Don Wadsworth is the Dialect Coach, Randy Kovitz is the Fight Director, Casting is by McCorkle Casting, Fred Noel is the Production Stage Manager, and Adrienne Wells is the Assistant Stage Manager.

About the Playwright

Noël Coward (1899-1973) was a prolific writer, composer, actor, director, trendsetter, and entertainer extraordinaire. In addition to Private Lives, his most famous plays include The Vortex, Cavalcade, Design for Living, Fallen Angels, Present Laughter, Blithe Spirit, and Hay Fever. His films include This Happy Breed, In Which We Serve, and Brief Encounter. In 1970

he received a special Tony Award for his "multiple and immortal contributions to theater." The same year he was knighted by the Queen of England for his "services to drama."

Brooklyn Brewery

Brooklyn Brewery makes beer. Good beer. Not only does it taste good and make your meal better but we like to think that since its founding in 1988, Brooklyn Brewery has brewed flavorful beers that enrich the life, tradition and culture of the communities it serves. Its award-winning roster of year-round, seasonal and specialty beers have gained the Brewery notoriety as one of the top craft beer producers in the world. While striving to brew the best beer possible (and make time for our growing families), The Brewery promotes the proliferation of good beer and good food whenever it can. Brooklyn beers are currently distributed in 25 states and 20 countries. Throughout 2011 The Brewery underwent an expansion that will double overall capacity in 2012 and quintuple by 2013. Brooklyn Brewery probably exports more beer than any other American craft brewery.

The leaders of Brooklyn Brewery have also led the industry in publishing. Brewmaster Garrett Oliver, widely acknowledged as the world's foremost scholar on beer, wrote The Brewmaster's Table: Discovering The Pleasures of Real Beer with Real Food in 2003. The book was firmly established as the first and final word on beer and food pairings in addition to being an entertaining guide to the world's best beers and breweries. In 2005, Co-Founders Steve Hindy and Tom Potter wrote Beer School. Beer School's real world stories about starting a brewery from scratch continues to inspire entrepreneurs today. The Brewmaster's Table is reportedly selling for about a dollar more than Beer School on amazon.

com and that does not bother Steve. More recently, in 2011, Garrett acted as the editor-in-chief of the comprehensive Oxford Companion To Beer. Essentially a beer encyclopedia, the book documents everything from malt disease to beer clubs to the ancient process of bottle re-fermentation.

In addition to facilitating community meetings at its Tasting Room, brewery employees serve on not-for-profit boards, including the Prospect Park Alliance, the Open Space Alliance, Transportation Alternatives and the Brooklyn Historical Society. Each year the company supports many charitable and arts organizations including BAM, Brooklyn Museum and MoMA, and partners with food purveyors across the country to produce beer dinners and tasting events.

The Brooklyn Brewery, Brewmaster: Garrett Oliver
Garrett Oliver is the brewmaster of The Brooklyn Brewery, editor-in-chief of The Oxford Companion to Beer, author of The Brewmaster's Table, and one of the foremost authorities in the world on the subject of beer. Garrett Oliver began brewing professionally at Manhattan Brewing Company in 1989 as an apprentice. He was appointed brewmaster there in 1993. He soon became widely known both here and abroad for his flavorful interpretations of traditional brewing styles and as an avid and entertaining lecturer and writer on the subject of beer. Garrett has hosted more than 800 beer tastings, dinners, and cooking demonstrations in fourteen countries, writes regularly for beer and food-related periodicals, and is internationally recognized as an expert on traditional beer styles and their affinity with good food.

In late 1994, Garrett joined The Brooklyn Brewery as brewmaster. Many of his beers have won national and international awards. He has served as a judge for the competition of the Great American Beer Festival for twenty years, and has been a perennial judge for the prestigious Great British Beer Festival competition and The Brewing Industry International Awards. He has hosted tastings and talks for many cultural institutions, including the Smithsonian, MassMOCA, the American Museum of Natural History, the National Geographic Society and The Jewish Museum. In the United States, Garrett has made numerous radio and television appearances as a spokesman for craft brewing.

Garrett has hosted beer tastings and dinners at many fine restaurants, cooking schools, and food events including several dinners at James Beard House, Eleven Madison Park, Per Se, Craft NYC, Oceana, The Waldorf-Astoria, Gramercy Tavern, Aubergine (London), Noma (Copenhagen), the Slow Food Cheese Festival and Salone del Gusto in Piemonte, Italy, Restaurant Roberta Sudbrack (Rio Di Janiero), Restaurant Julia (São Paulo), Anthony's (Leeds), Cape Wine 2006 (South Africa), The Association of Westchester Country Club Chefs, The American Institute of Wine and Food, The Culinary Institute of America, the Sommelier Society of America, The French Culinary Institute, The Institute for Culinary Education, Johnson & Wales University and the 2008 GEL Conference. Garrett was a founding Board member of Slow Food USA and then later served for five years on the Board of Counselors of Slow Food International. He was also a 2009 and 2010 finalist for the James Beard Award as "Outstanding Wine or Spirits Professional."

Garrett's first book, The Good Beer Book, co-written with Timothy Harper, was published in 1997 by Putnam/Berkley Books. In 2003 he authored The Brewmaster's Table: Discovering the Pleasures of Real Beer with Real Food. The Brewmaster's Table was the winner of a 2004 International Association of Culinary Professionals (IACP) Book Award and was a finalist for the 2004 James Beard Foundation Book Awards. The Brewmaster's Table was released in a paperback edition in May of 2005 and remains in print.

His latest book is The Oxford Companion to Beer (OCB), published in October, 2011 by Oxford University Press. Compiling the vast knowledge of 166 experts in 24 countries, covering 1,120 subjects, The Oxford Companion to Beer is the most comprehensive book ever published on the subject. Only nine weeks after its publication date, the OCB had risen to #8 on the Amazon list of overall books, had sold out four printings and headed into a fifth. Amazon.com named the OCB one of the "Best Books of 2011". Calling the OCB "a treasure trove", the New York Times said "The Oxford Companion to Beer is a definitive resource not just for beer enthusiasts but for amateur brewers, professional brewers and the thousands of restaurants that serve great beers but are staffed by people who may know little about them."

The Brooklyn Brewery is located at 79 North 11th Street in Williamsburg, Brooklyn, New York - 11249 between Berry Street and Wythe Avenue. The Brewery is open to the public Monday-Thursday from 5-7pm for reservation-only Small Batch tours, Friday evening for Happy Hour, and Saturdays and Sundays for Tours and Tastings. For more mind-blowing Brooklyn Brewery fodder go to facebook.com/thebrooklynbrewery, follow @BrooklynBrewery on Twitter, and treat your eyes to some videos.

Garrett is a graduate of Boston University, and holds a degree in Broadcasting and Film. He is the recipient of the 1998 Russell Schehrer Award for Innovation and Excellence in Brewing, granted by the Institute for Brewing Studies. It is the highest award given within the United States brewing profession. He is also the recipient of the 2003 Semper Ardens Award for Beer Culture (Denmark) and Cheers Beverage Media's "Beverage Innovator of the Year" Award for 2006. In 2007, Forbes named him one of the top ten tastemakers in the country for wine, beer and spirits.

Brooklyn Brewery Presents: The First Ever Pittsburgh Dumpling Experiment At Mr. Smalls

Theo Peck and Nick Suarez are excited to present the first ever Pittsburgh Dumpling Experiment, an amateur cook-off involving Pittsburgh's finest, most committed, passionate, and intense home chefs. Dishes will range from the savory to the sweet. You'll see it all, from pierogi, ravioli and pork dumplings to even a chocolate dessert dumpling. Remember, there is always room for a little experimentation and one last bite. As long as the dish is a dumpling form, it can represent. You may never look at dumplings in the same way. Anyone can compete! Anyone can attend! And anyone can win! Sharpen your knives, America! This is a call to all amateur chefs looking to be named the next cook-off king or queen of Pittsburgh.

The winners will receive not only a lifetime supply of culinary glory, cash, and other great prizes from our sponsors, but the grand prize winner will be flown to Brooklyn, NY to compete for the national cook-off title, the Super-Bowl, World Series, Stanley Cup of cook-offs to be held at Brooklyn Brewery. You, along with our professional judging panel, choose the winners! Do you have what it takes to win? All competing chef-testants will receive a $50 gift certificate to a local supermarket to help with the costs. A portion of the proceeds will go towards charities that promote sustainability and local culinary education for disadvantaged children and teens.

Are you experimented...?

You can sign up to be a chef-testant or purchase tickets to attend this fabulous event at <http://thefoodexperiments.com/tour/pittsburgh/>

Event tickets can also be purchased at Mr. Smalls' ticket outlets: www.mrsmalls.com.

A little about Nick and Theo: When the two met, it wasn't about the common good — it was a fierce culinary rivalry. They battled with chili, chowders, and bacon. Neither man wanted to concede defeat to the other. Like the Roman gladiators before them, covered in the blood of swine, they fought with chafing dish ablaze and serving spoon at the ready. In the end, who won doesn't matter, because like all great rivals they had one thing in common: the pursuit of GLORIA CULINARIUS! Culinary Glory! For that reason, they laid down their sterno, shook hands, drank beer, ate BBQ, and created the Food Experiments!

And now, thanks to Brooklyn Brewery, we get to take our friendship and the Experiments on the road for a second year!

Before the Experiments, Nick was a tasting editor at Wine Spectator, and now, he is pursuing his dream. After completing his coursework at the French Culinary Institute, he took a job working the line at Danny Meyer's Modern restaurant. His mind will never be the same.

Theo, the older and potentially wiser half of the Experiments, has lived a varied life, from Lower Eastside bar owner in the 90s to ski bum to culinary graduate. (He is still proud of his "Crispy Whites Award"). Food and cooking has always been central to his life. Now, through a fated series of twists and turns, he finds himself at the helm of America's most exciting amateur cook-off series: The Food Experiments! Don't miss the first ever Pittsburgh Dumpling Experiment on May 20th at Mr. Smalls, Millvale.

Eight Things You Can't Miss Around Washington D.C. This Summer

by: Lana Atwell - Cher Murphy PR

Summer is a time for travel for millions of Americans, many of whom make their way to Washington D.C. With so much to do in the area, it's a challenge for tourists to identify the best ways to make the most of their time. While some things will always top the list, such as visiting the White House, there are several other things that people will not want to miss this summer.

"The Washington, D.C. area is filled with so many amazing things to do and places to explore, it's sometimes overwhelming for people who are coming here for the first time," states the Janine Vaccarello, COO of the Crime Museum. "The more you can narrow down the scope of your interests when visiting the area, the more you will be able to cover. But you simply can't go wrong by visiting this region in the summer."

Here are eight things you can't miss when visiting the Nation's Capital this summer:

1. Crime Museum. We are a nation obsessed with all things crime-related. From the nightly news to crime shows and beyond, we have a thirst for learning more and getting inside the mind of a criminal. This summer, visitors of the Crime Museum can check out the regular exhibits, including a CSI lab and over 600 artifacts, as well as new featured exhibits focused on John Wayne Gacy and the Unabomber.
2. Walk through Georgetown. Visitors marvel at this area of the city, where people can walk down the historic streets, shop, and enjoy the atmosphere. Plan to spend a morning or afternoon simply walking around, visiting the shops, enjoying a bite to eat, and admiring the history.
3. Take a hike. Leave the concrete behind for a few hours and take a hike at Great Falls Park. With wonderful views of the Potomac River, visitors can hike, rock climb, kayak, and more. It's a great way to get some fresh air and see the beauty of the land around the nation's capital.

4. Visit Mount Vernon. Nobody can visit Washington D.C. without thinking about our first President, George Washington. Plan to visit Mount Vernon, his 14-room mansion and estate, and take your trip back to the 1770s. The history in this place will make you glad you put it on your list.
5. Arlington National Cemetery. We all know that many soldiers have died to protect our freedom. With July 4th in mind, stop by this final resting place which four million tourists visit per year. It's a stop you will not soon forget.
6. African American Civil War Museum. Learn about the rich history and involvement of African Americans during the Civil War. This museum opened just a year ago and highlights their contribution, as well as their role in abolishing slavery.
7. Martin Luther King, Jr. National Memorial. The memorial honors the late Dr. King and is located between the Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials. This memorial officially opened last summer.
8. U.S. Capitol Building. Taking a free tour of the capitol building is a must for all visitors to the area. Just be sure to book it prior to your trip, because they tend to fill up quickly.

"Of course, there are plenty of attractions to choose from, but these are ones you will want to add," adds Vaccarello. "In addition to providing some historical references, they will also provide you with entertainment and a great all-around family vacation."

On top of their regular offerings, the Crime Museum also offers a variety of summer camps for kids, including a CSI Boot Camp. In May 2012, a temporary exhibit focusing on Crimes Against Marine Life will unveil within the museum. For more information on the museum, including exhibits, directions, and hours, visit www.crimemuseum.org.

About the Crime Museum

The Crime Museum opened its doors in 2008 with a mission to educate and provide guests memorable insight into our Nation's history of crime and judicial system. The museum examines law enforcement, forensic science, crime scene investigation (CSI) and the consequences of committing a crime. The museum is filled with over 100 interactives and highlights a fundamental commitment to capture the audience through an entertaining and educational experience. The Crime Museum is located on 7th Street NW between E and F Streets in downtown Washington, D.C. at the Gallery Place/Chinatown Metro (Arena exit). Learn more at www.crimemuseum.org.

The Headache

A police officer, though scheduled for all-night duty at the station, was relieved of duty early and arrived home four hours ahead of schedule, at 2 AM. Not wanting to wake his wife, he undressed in the dark, crept into the bedroom and started to climb into bed. She sleepily sat up and said, "Mike, dearest, would you go down to the all-night drug store on the next block and get me some aspirin? I've got a splitting headache." "Certainly, honey," he said, and feeling his way across the room, he got dressed and walked over to the drug store. As he arrived, the pharmacist looked up in surprise, "Say," said the druggist, "aren't you Officer Fenwick of the 8th District?" "Yes, I am," said the officer. "Well, then, what in the world are you doing in the Fire Chief's uniform?"

Profession

Two small boys, not yet old enough to be in school, were overheard talking at the zoo one day. "My name is Billy. What's yours?" asked the first boy. "Tommy," replied the second. "My Daddy's an accountant. What does your Daddy do for a living?" asked Billy. Tommy replied, "My Daddy's a lawyer." "Honest?" asked Billy. "No, just the regular kind," replied Tommy.

Insurance Salesman

Airman Jones was assigned to the induction centre, where he advised new recruits about their government benefits, especially their GI insurance. It wasn't long before Captain Smith noticed that Airman Jones was having a staggeringly high success-rate, selling insurance to nearly 100% of the recruits he advised. Rather than asking him about this, the Captain stood at the back of the room and listened to Jones' sales pitch. Jones explained the basics of GI Insurance to the new recruits, and then said, "If you are killed in a battle and have a GI Insurance, the government has to pay $200,000 to your beneficiaries. But, if you don't have a GI insurance and get killed in the battle, the government only has to pay a maximum of $6000." "Now," he concluded, "which group do YOU think they are going to send into battle first?"

Relationships

Three women: one engaged, one married, and one a mistress, are chatting about their relationships and decide to amaze their men. That night all three will wear a leather bodice S&M style, stiletto's and mask over their eyes. After a few days they meet again.....The engaged girlfriend: The other night, when my boyfriend came back home, he found me with the leather bodice, 12 cm stilettos and mask. He saw me he said: "you are the woman of my life, I love you'...then we made love all night long." The mistress: Ah! me too, the other night I met my lover in the office and I was wearing the leather bodice, mega stilettos, mask over my eyes and a raincoat, when I opened the raincoat... he did not say anything.....but we made wild passionate love all night. The married one: The other night I sent the kids to stay at my mother's for the night, I got myself ready: leather bodice, super stilettos and mask over my eyes....my husband comes back from work, opens the door and says: "Hi Batman, what's for dinner?"

Droppings

An old couple is on a walk, when a pigeon flies by and relieves himself on the woman's head. "Yuck! says the woman, "Get some toilet paper." "What for? He must be half-a-mile away by now."

Passed away

A brunette walks over to her blonde friend's home and finds her crying. "What happened...why are you crying?" The blonde tells her that her mother has passed away.

The neighbor makes her some coffee, comforts her and then leaves. The next day the neighbor goes back over to the house and finds the blonde crying again. Once again, she asks her why she is crying. This time the blonde replies hysterically... "I just got off the phone with my sister - her mother died too!"

Children in Church

A little boy was overheard praying: "Lord, if you can't make me a better boy, don't worry about it. I'm having a real good time like I am."

After the christening of his baby brother in church, Jason sobbed all the way home in the back seat of the car. His father asked him three times what was wrong. Finally, the boy replied, "That preacher said he wanted us brought up in a Christian home, and I wanted to stay with you guys."

One particular four-year-old prayed: "And forgive us our trash baskets as we forgive those who put trash in our baskets."

A Sunday school teacher asked her children as they were on the way to church service, "And why is it necessary to be quiet in church?" One bright little girl replied, "Because people are sleeping."

A mother was preparing pancakes for her sons, Kevin 5, and Ryan 3. The boys began to argue over who would get the first pancake. Their mother saw the opportunity for a moral lesson. "If Jesus were sitting here, He would say, 'Let my brother have the first pancake, I can wait.' Kevin turned to his younger brother and said, "Ryan, you be Jesus!"

Nightgown

A man and wife were celebrating their 50-year anniversary, so the man bought his wife a $250 see-through nightgown. Later that night she was getting ready for bed and realized the nightgown was still in the box downstairs. Walking naked through the house, she passed her husband who said, "My word, for $250 they could've at least ironed it!"

Home Medical Remedy

A man walks into his doctor's office and puts a note on the table for the doctor to read. It said, "I can't talk! Help me!" The doctor nodded sagely, and instructed the man to put his thumb on the table. The man thinks to himself that his thumb has nothing to do with his inability to talk, but he does as the doctor ordered. The doctor quickly picked up a big book and whacks the man's thumb with it as hard as he could. AAAAAAAAAAAAAA!!!" the man yelled. "Good, good," the doctor said, "Come back tomorrow and we'll work on the 'B'."

Heaven's Rule

Three old friends pass away together in an accident and go to heaven. When they arrive, St. Peter says, "We have only one rule here in Heaven... don't step on the ducks." So they enter heaven and, sure enough, there are ducks all over the place. It is almost impossible not to step on a duck, and although they try their best to avoid them, one of the friends accidentally steps on one. Along comes St. Peter with the ugliest woman the man has ever seen. St. Peter chains them together and says, "Your punishment for stepping on a duck is to spend eternity chained to this ugly woman!" The next day, the second friend accidentally steps on a duck and along comes St. Peter, who doesn't miss a thing, and with him is another extremely ugly woman. He chains them together with the same admonishment as for the first friend. The third friend observes all this and not wanting to be chained for all eternity to an ugly woman, is very, VERY careful where he steps. He manages to go months without stepping on any duck but one day St. Peter comes up to him with the most gorgeous woman he has ever laid eyes on... a very tall, tan, curvaceous, sexy blonde. St. Peter chains them together without saying a word. The man asks, "I wonder what I did to deserve being chained to you for all eternity?" The woman replies, "I don't know about you, but I stepped on a duck."

The Tea Party

When I was a toddler, someone gave me a little Tea Set as a gift, and it was one of my favorite toys. My father was in the living room engrossed in the evening news when I brought him a little cup of tea, which was just water, of course. After several cups of tea and lots of praise for such yummy tea, my Mom came home. My Dad made her wait in the living room to watch his little Princess bring him a cup of tea, because it was, "Just the cutest thing!" My Mom waited, and sure enough, here I come down the hall with a cup of tea for Daddy. She watches him drink it up and then says, "Did it ever occur to you that the only place that a toddler can reach to get water is the toilet?"

Respectfully Cheating

Jack and Betty are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary. "Betty, I was wondering -- have you ever cheated on me?" "Oh Jack, why would you ask such a question now? You don't want to ask that question..." "Yes, Betty, I really want to know. Please." "Well, all right. Yes, 3 times." "Three? When were they?" "Well, Jack, remember when you were 35 years old and you really wanted to start the business on your own and no bank would give you a loan?" "Remember how one day the bank president himself came over to the house and signed the loan papers, no questions asked?" "Oh, Betty, you did that for me! I respect you even more than ever, that you would do such a thing for me! So, when was number 2?" "Well, Jack, remember when you had that last heart attack and you were needing that very tricky operation, and no surgeon would touch you?" "Remember how Dr. DeBakey came all the way up here, to do the surgery himself, and then you were in good shape again?" "I can't believe it! Betty, I love that you should do such a thing for me, to save my life! I couldn't have a more wonderful wife. To do such a thing, you must really love me darling. I couldn't be more moved. When was number 3?" "Well, Jack, remember a few years ago, when you really wanted to be president of the golf club and you were 17 votes short?"

The Devoted Wife

A devoted wife had spent her lifetime taking care of her husband. Now he had been slipping in and out of a coma for several months, yet she stayed by his bedside every single day. When he came to his senses, he motioned for her to come near him. As she sat by him, he said, "You know what? You have been with me all through the bad times." "When I got fired, you were there to support me." "When my business failed, you were there." "When I got shot, you were by my side." "When we lost the house, you gave me support." "When my health started failing, you were still by my side. You know what?" "What, my dear?" she asked gently. "You're a gd jinx!"

Missionaries

Two cannibals meet one day. The first cannibal says, "You know, I just can't seem to get a tender missionary. I've baked 'em, I've roasted 'em, I've stewed 'em, I've barbequed 'em, I've even tried every sort of marinade. I just cannot seem to get them tender." The second cannibal asks, "What kind of missionary do you use?" The other replied, "You know, the ones that hang out at that place at the bend of the river." "They have those brown cloaks with a rope around the waist and their sort of bald on top with a funny ring of hair on their heads." "Ah ha!" he replies. "No wonder.. those are friars!"

Biting dog?

There was a hound dog laying in the yard and an old geezer in overalls was sitting on the porch. "Excuse me, sir, but does your dog bite?" the tourist asked. The old man looked up over his newspaper and replied, "Nope." As soon as the tourist stepped out of his car, the dog began snarling and growling, then attacked both his arms and legs. The tourist yelled, "I thought you said your dog didn't bite!" The old man muttered, "Ain't my dog."

Three Nuns Quitting

Three nuns decided to quit so they went to the Mother Superior and said, "We don't want to be nuns anymore, how do we quit?" The mother told them, "Do something unholy and come back here in 24 hours." So the nuns left thinking, "What can I do that's unholy?"

The next day they went to the mother one at a time. The mother said to the first nun, "What unholy thing did you do?" The nun replied, "I stole a kid's bike." The mother said, "I guess that will do, go drink some holy water." When the nun did she wasn't a nun anymore and she left the convent. The second nun walked in and the mother said, "What unholy thing did you do?" The nun replied, "I slept with a married man!" The mother said, "Well, that's sinning. Go drink holy water." The third nun walked in and the mother said, "What unholy thing did you do?" The third nun said proudly, "I peed in the holy water!"

First-Aid Course

A blonde goes into work and she's 1 hour late. "How come you're late?" asked her boss. "It was awful!" she explained. "I was walking down Elm street and there was a terrible accident. A man was thrown from his car and he was lying in the middle of the street. His leg was broken, his skull was fractured, and there was blood everywhere. Thank God I took that first-aid course!" "What did you do?" asked her boss. "Well, remembering what my instructor said, I went right into action. I sat down and put my head between my knees to keep from fainting!"

Serenity Under Pressure

Grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, and the wisdom to hide the bodies of those I had to kill because they pissed me off. And also, help me to be careful of the toes I step on today, as they may be connected to the ass that I may have to kiss tomorrow. Help me to always give 100% at work: 12% on Monday, 23% on Tuesday, 40% on Wednesday, 20% on Thursday, 5% on Friday. And help me to remember: When I'm having a really bad day, and it seems that people are trying to piss me off, that it takes 42 muscles to frown and only 4 to extend my middle finger and tell them to bite me.

Hungry Monkey

A guy walks into a bar with his pet monkey. He orders a drink, and while he's drinking it, the monkey jumps around all over the place. The monkey grabs some olives off the bar and eats them, then grabs some sliced limes and eats them, then jumps up on the pool table, grabs the cue ball, sticks it in his mouth and swallows it whole. The bartender screams at the guy, "Did you see what your monkey just did!?" The guy says, "No, what?" "He just ate the cue ball off my pool table, whole!", says the bartender. "Yeah, that doesn't surprise me," replied the patron, he eats everything in sight. I'll pay for the cue ball and stuff." He finishes his drink, pays his bill, and leaves. Two weeks later he's in the bar again, and he has his monkey with him. He orders a drink and the monkey starts running around the bar again. While the man is drinking his drink, the monkey finds a maraschino cherry on the bar. He grabs it, sticks it in his butt, pulls it out, and eats it. The bartender is disgusted. "Did you see what your monkey did now!?", he asks. "Now what?", responds the patron. "Well, he stuck a maraschino cherry up his butt, then pulled it out and ate it!" "Yeah, that doesn't surprise me," replied the patron. "He still eats everything in sight, but ever since he ate that cue ball he measures everything first!"

Serious Swimming...

There was a competition to swim from Santa Monica to Catalina doing only the breaststroke, and the three women who entered the race were a brunette, a redhead and a blonde. After approximately 14 hours, the brunette staggered up on the shore and was declared the fastest breaststroker. About 40 minutes later, the redhead crawled on shore and was declared the second place finisher. Nearly 8 hours after that, the blonde finally came ashore and promptly collapsed in front of the worried onlookers. When the reporters asked why it took her so long to complete the race, she replied: "I don't want to sound like a sore loser, but I think those two other girls were using their arms."

Wedding Fight

A wedding occurred, just outside Cavan in Ireland. To keep tradition going, everyone got angry and the bride's and groom's families had a storming rage and begin wrecking the reception room and generally kicking the crap out of each other. The police get called in to break up the fight. The following week, all members of both families appear in court.

The fight continues in the court room until the judge finally brings calm with the use of his hammer, shouting "Silence in Court." The court room goes silent and Paddy (the best man) stands up and says, "Judge.. I was the best man at the wedding and I think I should explain what happened." The judge agrees and asks Paddy to take the stand. Paddy begins his explanation by telling the court that it is traditional in a Cavan wedding that the best man gets the first dance with the Bride. The judge says "OK." "Well", said Paddy, "After I had finished the first dance, the music kept going, so I continued dancing to the second song, and after that the music kept going and I was dancing to the third song... when all of a sudden the groom leapt over the table, ran towards us and gave the bride an unmerciful kick in her privates." The judge instantly responded... "God. that must have hurt!" Paddy replies "HURT!.. He broke three of my damn fingers!"

Luigi, who was approaching his 50th wedding anniversary, to take a few, minutes and share some insight into how he had managed to stay married to the same woman all these years. Luigi replied to the assembled husbands, "Well, I've a-ried to treat-a her nice, spend the money on her, but best is that I took-a her to Italy for the 20th anniversary!" The Priest responded, "Luigi, you are an amazing inspiration to all the husbands here! Please tell us what you are planning for your wife for your 50th anniversary." Luigi proudly replied, "I'm a-gonna go to get her."

Smart Kid

An old man in Mississippi is sitting on his front porch watching the sunrise. He sees the neighbor's kid walk by carrying something big under his arm. "Hey boy, whatcha got there?" "Roll of chicken wire." "What you gonna do with that?" "Gonna catch some chickens." "You damn fool! You can't catch chickens with chicken wire!" The boy just laughs and keeps walking. That evening at sunset, the boy comes walking by, dragging behind him the chicken wire with about 30 chickens caught in it. The next morning, the old man is out watching the sun rise and he sees the boy walk by carrying something in his hand. "Hey boy, whatcha got there?" "Roll of duct tape." "What you gonna do with that?" "Gonna catch me some ducks." "You damn fool! You can't catch ducks with duct tape!" The boy just laughs and keeps walking. That night around sunset the boy walks by, trailing behind him the unrolled roll of duct tape with about 35 ducks caught in it. The next morning, the old man sees the boy walking by carrying what looks like a long reed with something fuzzy on the end. "Hey boy, whatcha got there?" "It's a pussy willow." "Wait up...I'll get my hat."

Change a Light Bulb

How many lawyers does it take to change a light bulb?

"Such number as may be deemed necessary to perform the stated task in a timely and efficient manner within the strictures of the following agreement: Whereas the party of the first part, also known as "The Lawyer," and the party of the second part, also known as "The Light Bulb," do hereby and forthwith agree to a transaction wherein the party of the second part

(Light Bulb) shall be removed from the current position as a result of failure to perform previously agreed upon duties, i.e., the lighting, elucidation, and otherwise illumination of the area ranging from the front (north) door, through the entry way, terminating at an area just inside the primary living area, demarcated by the beginning of the carpet, any spill-over illumination being at the option of the party of the second part (Light Bulb) and not required by the aforementioned agreement between the parties. The aforementioned removal transaction shall include, but not be limited to, the following steps: The party of the first part (Lawyer) shall, with or without elevation at his option, by means of a chair, step stool, ladder or any other means of elevation, grasp the party of the second part (Light Bulb) and rotate the party of the second part (Light Bulb) in a counter-clockwise direction, said direction being non-negotiable. Said grasping and rotation of the party of the second part (Light Bulb) shall be undertaken by the party of the first part (Lawyer) with every possible caution by the party of the first part (Lawyer) to maintain the structural integrity of the party of the second part (Light Bulb), notwithstanding the aforementioned failure of the party of the second part (Light Bulb) to perform the aforementioned customary and agreed upon duties. The foregoing notwithstanding, however, both parties stipulate that structural failure of the party of the second part (Light Bulb) may be incidental to the aforementioned failure to perform and in such case the party of the first part (Lawyer) shall be held blameless for such structural failure insofar as this agreement is concerned so long as the non-negotiable directional codicil (counter-clockwise) is observed by the party of the first part (Lawyer) throughout.

Upon reaching a point where the party of the second part (Light Bulb) becomes separated from the party of the third part ("Receptacle"), the party of the first part (Lawyer) shall have the option of disposing of the party of the second part (Light Bulb) in a manner consistent with all applicable state, local and federal statutes. Once separation and disposal have been achieved, the party of the first part (Lawyer) shall have the option of beginning installation of the party of the fourth part ("New Light Bulb"). This installation shall occur in a manner consistent with the reverse of the procedures described in step one of this self-same document, being careful to note that the rotation should occur in a clockwise direction, said direction also being non-negotiable. NOTE: The above described steps may be performed, at the option of the party of the first part (Lawyer), by said party of the first part (Lawyer), by his heirs and assigns, or by any and all persons authorized by him to do so, the objective being to produce a level of illumination in the immediate vicinity of the aforementioned front (north) door consistent with maximization of ingress and revenue for the party of the fifth part."

Several men are in the locker room of a golf club. A cell phone on a bench rings and a man engages the hands-free speaker-function and begins to talk. Everyone else in the room stops to listen.

MAN: "Hello"

WOMAN: "Honey, it's me. Are you at the club?"

MAN: "Yes."

WOMAN: "I'm at the mall now and found this beautiful leather coat. It's only $1,000. Is it OK if I buy it?"

MAN: "Sure, go ahead if you like it that much."

WOMAN: "I also stopped by the Mercedes dealership and saw the new 2007 models. I saw one I really liked."

MAN: "How much?"

WOMAN: "$65,000."

MAN: "OK, but for that price I want it with all the options."

WOMAN: "Great! Oh, and one more thing. The house we wanted last year is back on the market. They're asking $950,000."

MAN: "Well, then go ahead and give them an offer, but just offer $900,000."

WOMAN: "OK. I'll see you later! I love you!"

MAN: "Bye, I love you, too."

The man hangs up. The other men in the locker room are looking at him in astonishment.

Then he smiles and asks: "Anyone know whose phone this is?"

Stinkin' Proof

One day, an old lady went to the store to get some food for her dog. When she got to the counter to pay, the cashier said she needed proof that the old lady had a dog because some old people have been known to just eat the animal food themselves. So she went home got her puppy, bought it to the store and purchased the dog food. One week later, she went to get some cat food. Once again the cashier needed proof that the old lady had a cat. So she went home, got her cat, came back and purchased the cat food. Two weeks later, the old lady walked in the same market to buy something. She held a bag in front of the cashier and told him to put his fingers in the bag and then smell them. When the cashier did, he said, "It smells like poop!" The old lady replied, "Can I buy some toilet paper now?"

Sensitive Beer

Three hicks were working on a telephone tower - Steve, Bruce and Jed. Steve falls off and is killed instantly. As the ambulance takes the body away, Bruce says, "Someone should go and tell his wife." Jed says, "OK, I'm pretty good at that sensitive stuff, I'll do it." Two hours later, he comes back carrying a case of beer. Bruce says, "Where did you get that, Jed?" "Steve's wife gave it to me," Jed replies. "That's unbelievable, you told the lady her husband was dead and she gave you beer?" Well, not exactly", Jed says. "When she answered the door, I said to her, 'You must be Steve's widow'." She said, "No, I'm not a widow!" And I said, "I'll bet you a case of Budweiser you are."

The Professional Gambler

During the Great Depression, there was a man who walked into a bar one day. He went up to the bartender and said, "Bartender, I'd like to buy the house a round of drinks." The bartender said, "That's fine, but we're in the middle of the Depression, so I'll need to see some money first." The guy pulled out a huge wad of bills and set them on the bar. The bartender can't believe what he's seeing. "Where did you get all that money?" asked the bartender. "I'm a professional gambler," replied the man. The bartender said, "There's no such thing! I mean, your odds are fifty-fifty at best, right?" "Well, I only bet on sure things," said the guy. "Like what?" asked the bartender. "Well, for example, I'll bet you fifty dollars that I can bite my right eye," he said. The bartender thought about it. "Okay," he said. So, the guy pulled out his false right eye and bit it. "Aw, you screwed me," said the bartender, and paid the guy his $50. "I'll give you another chance. I'll bet you another fifty dollars that I can bite my left eye," said the stranger. The bartender thought again and said, "Well, I know you're not blind, I mean, I watched you walk in here. I'll take that bet." So, the guy pulled out his false teeth and bit his left eye. "Aw, you screwed me again!" protested the bartender. "That's how I win so much money, bartender. I'll just take a bottle of your best scotch in lieu of the fifty dollars," said the man. With that, the guy went to the back room and spent the better part of the night playing cards with some of the locals. After many hours of drinking and card playing, he stumbled up to the bar. Drunk as a skunk, he said, "Bartender, I'll give you one last chance. I'll bet you five hundred dollars that I can stand on this bar on one foot and piss into that whiskey bottle on that shelf behind you without spilling a drop."

The bartender once again pondered the bet. The guy couldn't even stand up straight on two feet, much less one. "Okay, you're on," he said. The guy climbed up on the bar, stood on one leg, and began pissing all over the place. He hit the bar, the bartender, himself, but not even a drop made it into the whiskey bottle. The bartender was ecstatic. Laughing, the bartender said, "Hey pal, you owe me five hundred dollars!" The guy climbed down off the bar and said, "That's okay. I just bet each of the guys in the card room a thousand bucks that I could piss all over you and the bar and still make you laugh!"

Uncle Ted's Morals

Billy's homework assignment is to think of a true story with a moral so he goes home and thinks about it all night and finally has one. The following day, Suzy raises her hand first and says, "My dad owns a farm and every Sunday we load the chicken eggs on the truck and drive into town to sell them at the market. Well, one Sunday we hit a big bump and all the eggs flew out of the basket and onto the road." The teacher asks for the moral to the story. Suzy replies, "Don't put all your eggs in one basket." Next is Lucy. "Well, my dad owns a farm, too, and every weekend we take the chicken eggs and put them in the incubator. Last weekend only 8 of the 12 eggs hatched. "The moral is, don't count your chicks before they are hatched." Billy is last to speak. He says, "My uncle Ted fought in the Vietnam War. His plane was shot down over enemy territory. He jumped out before it crashed, with only a parachute, a bottle of bourbon, a machine gun, and a machete. As he floated down he drank the bottle of bourbon. Unfortunately, he landed right in the middle of 100 North Vietnamese soldiers. He shot 70 with his machine gun, but ran out of bullets so he pulled out his machete and killed 20 more. The blade broke on his machete, so he killed the last 10 with his bare hands." The teacher looks in shock at Billy and asks if there is possibly any moral to his story. Billy replies, "Don't f**k with my Uncle Ted when he's been drinking."

Advice Columns

Here's an example of why men do not write advice columns...

Dear Walter:

I hope you can help me. The other day I left for work, leaving my husband in the house watching TV as usual. I hadn't gone more than a few hundred yards down the road when my engine conked out and the car slowed to a halt. I walked back home to get my husband's help. When I got home I couldn't believe my eyes. He was parading in front of the wardrobe mirror dressed in my underwear and high-heel shoes, and he was wearing my make-up. I am 32, my husband is 34, and we have been married for twelve years. When I confronted him, he tried to convince me that he had dressed in my lingerie because he couldn't find his own underwear. But when I asked him about the make-up, he broke down and admitted that he'd been wearing my clothes for six months. I told him to stop or I would leave him. He lost his job six months ago and says he has been feeling increasingly depressed and worthless. I love him very much, but ever since I gave him the ultimatum he has become increasingly distant. I don't feel I can get through to him anymore. Can you please help?

Sincerely,
Sheila Lusk

Dear Sheila:

A car stalling after being driven a short distance can be caused by a variety of problems with the engine. Start by making sure there is no debris in the fuel line. If it's clear, check the clips holding the vacuum hoses onto the intake manifold. If none of these approaches solves the problem, it could be that the fuel pump itself is faulty, causing low delivery pressure to the carburetor float chamber. I hope this helps.

Walter

Blonde Kidnapping

A blonde was down on her luck. In order to raise some money, she decided to kidnap a kid and hold him for ransom. She went to the playground, grabbed a kid, took him behind a tree, and told him: "I've kidnapped you." She then wrote a note saying, "I've kidnapped your kid. Tomorrow morning, put $10,000 in a paper bag and put it under the pecan tree next to the slide on the north side of the playground. Signed, A Blonde." The blonde then pinned the note to the kid's shirt and sent him home to show it to his parents. The next morning the blonde checked, and sure enough, a paper bag was sitting beneath the pecan tree. The blonde opened the bag and found the $10,000 with a note that said, "How could you do this to a fellow blonde?"

The Doctor's Convention

There's a bunch of doctors gathered together at a doctor's convention one night. A male doctor notices a female doctor from across the room. The female doctor notices also and the next thing you know, they're sitting next to each other by the end of dinner. After dinner, the male asks the woman if she wants to go up to his hotel room. 'Sure,' the woman says. 'Let me go wash my hands first.' After she washes her hands, they have sex. After they are finished, she washes her hands again. This is really starting to annoy the male doctor so he says, 'You know, you must be a surgeon, because you keep washing your hands.' Angry at this remark, the woman says, 'Well, you must be an anesthesiologist, because I didn't feel a thing!'

Irishman's Two Brothers

An Irishman walks into a pub. The bartender asks him, "What'll you have?" The man says, "Give me three pints of Guinness please." So the bartender brings him three pints and the man proceeds to alternately sip one, then the other, then the third until they're gone. He then orders three more. The bartender says, "Sir, you don't have to order three at a time. I can keep an eye on it and when you get low I'll bring you a fresh cold one." The man says, "You don't understand. I have two brothers, one in Australia and one in the States. We made a vow to each other that every Saturday night we'd still drink together. So right now, my brothers have three Guinness Stouts too, and we're drinking together. The bartender thought that was a wonderful tradition. Every week the man came in and ordered three beers. Then one week he came in and ordered only two. He drank them and then ordered two more. The bartender said to him, "I know what your tradition is, and I'd just like to say that I'm sorry that one of your brothers died." The man said, "Oh, me brothers are fine -- I just quit drinking."

Baseball in Heaven

Two old guys, Abe and Sol, are sitting on a park bench feeding pigeons and talking about baseball, like they do every day. Abe turns to Sol and says, "Do you think there's baseball in heaven?" Sol thinks about it for a minute and replies, "I dunno. But let's make a deal: if I die first, I'll come back and tell you if there's baseball in heaven, and if you die first, you do the same." They shake on it and sadly, a few months later, poor Abe passes on. One day soon afterward, Sol is sitting there feeding the pigeons by himself when he hears a voice whisper, "Sol... Sol..." Sol responds, "Abe! Is that you?" "Yes it is, Sol," whispers Abe's ghost. Sol, still amazed, asks, "So, is there baseball in heaven?" "Well," says Abe, "I've got good news and bad news." "Gimme the good news first," says Sol. Abe says, "Well... there is baseball in heaven." Sol says, "That's great! What news could be bad enough to ruin that!?" Abe sighs and whispers, "You're pitching on Friday."

Sex Therapy - Florida Style

A Florida couple, both well into their 80s, go to a sex therapist's office. The doctor asks, "What can I do for you?" The man says, "Will you watch us have sexual intercourse?" The doctor raises both eyebrows, but he is so amazed that such an elderly couple is asking for sexual advice that he agrees. When the couple finishes, the doctor says, "There's absolutely nothing wrong with the way you have intercourse." He thanks them for coming, he wishes them good luck, he charges them $50 and he says goodbye.

The next week, however, the couple returns and asks the sex therapist to watch again. The sex therapist is a bit puzzled, but agrees. This happens several weeks in a row. The couple makes an appointment, has intercourse with no problems, pays the doctor, then leave. Finally, after 5 or 6 weeks of this routine, the doctor says, "I'm sorry, but I have to ask. Just what are you trying to find out?" The old man says, "We're not trying to find out anything. She's married and we can't go to her house. I'm married and we can't go to my house. The Holiday Inn charges $98. The Hilton charges $139. We do it here for $50, and I get $43 back from Medicare...!"

Doctors and Patients

Three Doctors are discussing which types of patients they prefer. Doctor Watson says, "I prefer librarians. All their organs are alphabetized." Doctor Fitzpatrick says, "I prefer mathematicians. All their organs are numbered." Doctor Ahn says, "I prefer lawyers. They are gutless, heartless, brainless, spineless, and their heads and rear ends are interchangeable."

Terms of Endearment

A man was invited to a friend's home for dinner, where he noticed that his buddy preceded every request to his wife with endearing terms, calling her Honey, Darling, Sweetheart, Pumpkin, and so forth. He was impressed at this, since the couple had been married over 50 years. While the wife was in the kitchen, he said, "I think it's wonderful that after all these years you still call your wife those cute little pet names." His buddy hung his head. "To tell you the truth, I forgot her name about 10 years ago."

Olympic Condoms

A man is out shopping and discovers a new brand of Olympic condoms. Clearly impressed, he buys a pack. Upon getting home, the man informs his wife of his new purchase. "Olympic condoms?", she asks, "What makes them so special?" "There are three colors," he replies, "Gold, Silver and Bronze." "What color are you going to wear tonight?" she asks cheekily. "Gold of course," says the man proudly. The wife responds, "Really, why don't you wear Silver? It would be nice if you came second for a change."

Mating Bulls

A man takes his wife to the county livestock show, and they head down the aisle that houses the bulls. The sign on the first stall states, this bull mated 50 times last year. The wife turns to her husband and says, "He mated 50 times in a year. Isn't that nice!" After passing a bull that had mated 65 times, she grinningly quips, "You could learn from this one!" They reach the last bull, whose owner is stroking the massive beast's head. "How many times has your bull mated this year?" asks the wife. This here's the pride of the County: 365 times, ma'am." The wife's jaw drops, and she turns to her husband. "Wow! You could really learn from this one. You should ask him what his secret is!" The fed-up man turns to the breeder and says, "Hey, was it all with the same cow?"

The Blonde Officer

A blonde in a convertible is speeding down the highway when she gets pulled over by a female police officer, who also turns out to be a blonde. She walks up to the convertible and asks to see the blonde's drivers license. Confused, the blonde asks, "What does a license look like?" Eager to help, the officer happily responds, "It's that thing in your purse with your face on it." The blonde begins searching through her purse and finally pulls out a mirror. She flips it open, sees her own reflection and figures that must be it. After handing it over to the officer, the officer carefully looks at it says, "Oh, I'm so sorry. If I knew you were a cop, I wouldn't have pulled you over!"

Lineup

The District Attorney requested all the robbery victims to come to the police station to study a lineup of five people. He placed his suspect at the end of the line. Then he asked each to step forward and say, "Give me all your money...and I need some change in quarters, nickels and dimes." The first four did it right. However, when it was the last man's turn to recite, he broke the case by blurting out, "That isn't what I said."

The Juggler

A juggler, driving to his next performance, is stopped by the police. "What are these matches and lighter fluid doing in your car?" asks the cop. "I'm a juggler and I juggle flaming torches in my act." "Oh yeah?" says the doubtful cop. "Lets see you do it." The juggler gets out and starts juggling the blazing torches masterfully. A couple driving by slows down to watch. "Wow," says the driver to his wife. "I'm glad I quit drinking. Look at the test they're giving now!"

A Blind Joker

A blind man walks into a bar, taps the man next him, and says, "Hey, wanna hear a blonde joke?" The man says back to the blind man, "Look buddy, I'm blonde. The man behind me is a 400-pound professional wrestler and he is blonde. The bouncer is blonde. The man sitting over to your left is also blonde. Still wanna tell that blonde joke?"

The blind man is silent for a moment and then says, "Nah, I wouldn't want to have to explain it five times."

Gender Roles

A journalist had done a story on gender roles in Kuwait several years before the Gulf War, and she noted then that women customarily walked about 10 feet behind their husbands. She returned to Kuwait recently and observed that the men now walked several yards behind their wives. She approached one of the women for an explanation. "This is marvelous," said the journalist. "What enabled women here to achieve this reversal of roles?" Replied the Kuwaiti woman: "Land mines"

Bank Teller

A middle aged man walks into the bank and says to the young teller, "I want to open a f*****g checking account". "Please sir", she replies, "we can't have language like that in here." "Why the f**k not?" he asked. "Sir," Came her retort, "I must ask you to refrain from swearing." "I don't give a crap what you want," he answers, "I just want to open a f*****g checking account." With this the teller leaves and returns in a moment with her branch manager. The manager asks if he might be able to help the gentleman. "Hell yes", came the reply, "I just won 14 million dollars in the lottery and want to open a f*****g checking account." The branch manager says, "I see, and this stupid, f*****g, bitch is giving you a hard time?"

In the middle of the night, Holmes violently shakes Watson awake. "Watson," he says, "look at the sky and tell me what you see." "I see the stars," replies Watson. "Yes, and what does that tell you?" Watson takes a big breath "Astronomically speaking, it means that we are insignificant among the spectrum of the universe, physiologically speaking that we are only creating a dent in the infinite mystery of life, and theologically speaking that God rules all things. ## Dumb Husband

A blond guy gets home early from work and hears strange noises coming from the bedroom. He rushes upstairs to find his wife naked on the bed, sweating and panting. "What's up?" he says. "I'm having a heart attack," cries the woman. He rushes downstairs to grab the phone, but just as he's dialing, his four-year-old son comes up and says, "Daddy! Daddy! Uncle Ted's hiding in your closet and he's got no clothes on!" The guy slams the phone down and storms upstairs into the bedroom, walks past his screaming wife, and rips open the wardrobe door. Sure enough, there is his brother, totally naked, cowering on the closet floor. "You rotten b****d," says the husband. "My wife's having a heart attack and you're running around naked scaring the kids!"

Last Delivery

It was mailman George's last day on the job after 35 years of delivering the mail through all kinds of weather. When he arrived at the first house on his route, the whole family came out, roundly congratulated him, and sent him on his way with a tidy gift envelope. At the second house they presented him with a box of fine cigars. The folks at the third house handed him a selection of terrific fishing lures. At the next house, he was met at the door by a strikingly beautiful woman in a revealing negligee. She took him by the hand, and led him up the stairs to the bedroom where she blew his mind with the most passionate love he had ever experienced. When he'd had enough, they went downstairs, where she fixed him a giant breakfast: eggs, potatoes, ham, sausage, blueberry waffles and fresh-squeezed orange juice. When he was truly satisfied, she poured him a cup of steaming coffee. As she was pouring, he noticed a dollar bill sticking out from under the cup's bottom edge. "All this is just too wonderful for words," he said, "but what's the dollar for?" "Well," she said, "last night, I told my husband that today would be your last day, and that I wanted to do something special for you. I asked him what to give you. He said, 'Screw him. Give him a dollar.'" "Breakfast was my idea."

Stupid Wives

Two guys are chatting in a bar, complaining about their wives. "My wife is really stupid," says the first guy. "Last week she bought a brand-new car, and she doesn't even know how to drive." "That's nothing," says the second guy. "Last week I found a bunch of condoms in my wife's purse, and she doesn't even have a penis!"

Horny Pilot

A 747 was starting its descent and the pilot had forgotten to turn off the P.A. system. "As soon as I clock off" he said, "I'm going to have a nice cold beer and then screw the that blonde flight attendant." The horrified flight attendant made a dash toward the cockpit, but tripped over in the aisle. A little old lady sitting there whispered, "There's no need to hurry love, he said he was going to have a beer first."

Insulting his Mom

Three guys are drinking in a bar when a drunk comes in, staggers up to them, and points at the guy in the middle, shouting, "Your mom's the best lay in town." Everyone expects a fight, but the guy ignores him and the drunk wanders off and stands at the far end of the bar. Ten minutes later, the drunk comes back, points to the same guy, and says, "I just screwed your mom, and it was swe-e-et!" Again the guy refuses to take the bait, and the drunk wanders off. Ten minutes later he comes back and announces, "Your mom even let me..." Finally the guy interrupts: "Go home, Dad - you're drunk!"

New Words

Each year, the Washington Post's "Style Invitational" asks readers to take any word from the dictionary, alter it by adding, subtracting, or changing one letter, and supply a new definition. Here are the winners:

Intoxication: Euphoria at getting a tax refund, which lasts until you realize it was your money to start with.

Reintarnation: Coming back to life as a hillbilly.

---

Foreplay: Any misrepresentation about yourself for the purpose of getting laid.

---

Giraffiti: Vandalism spray-painted very, very high.

---

Sarchasm: The gulf between the author of sarcastic wit and the person who doesn't get it.

---

Inoculate: To take coffee intravenously when you are running late.

---

Hipatitis: Terminal coolness.

---

Osteopornosis: A degenerate disease.

---

Karmageddon: It's like, when everybody is sending off all these really bad vibes, right? And then, like, the Earth explodes and it's like, a serious bummer.

---

Glibido: All talk and no action.

---

Dopeler Effect: The tendency of stupid ideas to seem smarter when they come at you rapidly.

Ignoramus: A person who's both stupid and an a**hole.

Elderly Proposal

There were these two elderly people living in a Florida mobile home park. He was a widower and she a widow. They had known one another for a number of years. Now, one evening there was a community supper in the big activity center. These two were at the same table, across from one another. As the meal went on, he made a few admiring glances at her and finally gathered up his courage to ask her, "Will you marry me?" After about six seconds of careful consideration, she answered. "Yes. Yes, I will." The meal ended and with a few more pleasant exchanges, they went to their respective places. Next morning, he was troubled. "Did she say yes or did she say no?" He couldn't remember. Try as he would, he just could not recall. No even a faint memory. With trepidation, he went to the telephone and called her. First, he explained to her that he didn't remember as well as he used to. Then he reviewed the lovely evening past. As he gained a little more courage, he then inquired of her, "When I asked if you would marry me, did you say Yes or did you say No?" He was delighted to hear her say, "Why, I said, Yes, yes I will and I meant it with all my heart." Then she continued, "And I am so glad that you called, because I couldn't remember who had asked me."

Blonde Radio

A blonde bought an a.m. radio and it took her a month to find out she could listen to it at night.

Little Johnny and the Rat

Little Johnny walked into his dad's bedroom one day, only to catch him sitting on the side of his bed sliding on a condom. Johnny's father, in an attempt to hide his wood, bent over as if to look under the bed. Little Johnny asked curiously, "Whatcha doin', Dad?" His father quickly replied, "I thought I saw a rat go underneath the bed." Little Johnny replied, "Whatcha gonna do, screw him?"

Genesis

Adam was walking around the garden of Eden, moping. God asked him, "What is wrong with you?" Adam replied that he was lonely and didn't have anyone to talk to. God said that He was going to make Adam a companion and that it would be a woman. He said, "This person will gather food for you, cook for you, and when you discover clothing, she will wash it for you. She will always agree with every decision you make. She will bear your children and never ask you to get up in the middle of the night to take care of them. She will not nag you and will always be the first to admit she was wrong when you've had a disagreement. She will never have a headache and will freely give you love and passion whenever you need it. Adam asked God, "What will this 'woman' cost?" God replied, "An arm and a leg.” Adam thought a moment and asked, “What can I get for a rib?”

The Lucky Saucer

In front of a delicatessen, an art connoisseur noticed a mangy little kitten lapping up milk from a saucer. The saucer, he realized with a start, was a very rare and precious piece of pottery. He strolled into the store and offered 20 dollars for the cat. “It’s not for sale,” said the proprietor. “Look,” said the collector, “that cat is dirty and probably half wild, but I’m eccentric. I like cats that way. I’ll raise my offer to 100 dollars.” “It’s a deal,” said the proprietor, and pocketed money on the spot. “For that sum I’m sure you won’t mind throwing in the saucer,” said the connoisseur. “The kitten seems so happy drinking from it.” “Not a chance,” said the proprietor firmly. “That’s my lucky saucer. So far this week I’ve sold 15 cats.”

Loving Husband

A man and his ever-nagging wife went on vacation to Jerusalem. While they were there, the wife passed away. The undertaker told the husband, “You can have her shipped home for $5,000, or you can bury her here, in the Holy Land, for $150.” The man thought about it and told him he would just have her shipped home. The undertaker asked, “Why would you spend $5,000 to ship your wife home, when it would be wonderful to be buried here and you would spend only $150?” The man replied, “Long ago a man died here, was buried here, and three days later he rose from the dead. I just can’t take that chance.”

Stolen Horse

A cowboy rides up to a saloon on his horse. He goes in, orders a drink, then leaves. His horse is gone. He goes back to the saloon, and asks, “Where’s my horse?” No one replies. So he says, “I’ll order one more drink, and then if my horse isn’t outside, I’ll have to do what I did in Texas and I don’t like doing that.” So the locals hurry around, and when he leaves, his horse is outside. As the stranger gets on his horse, the bartender asks, “What did you do in Texas?” to which the cowboy replies, “I had to walk home.”

Sorry, I’m blonde!

Two blonds were in a parking lot trying to unlock the door of their car with a coat hanger. They tried and tried to get the door open, but they couldn’t. The girl with the coat hanger stopped for a moment to catch her breath, and her friend said anxiously, “Hurry up! It’s starting to rain and the top is down.”
